

List of accepted A-level subjects

---

01 October 2025 – Central Admissions Office

The GCE A-level offerings vary per year and per exam board. If your A-level subject is not listed, please let us know the subject and exam board via the Central Student Service Desk. The admissions officers will then assess whether or not the subject can be accepted.

Accepted subjects

- Accounting
- Ancient History
- Archeology
- Biblical Studies
- Biology
- Business
- Business Studies
- Chemistry
- Citizenship Studies
- Classical Civilisation
- Communication and Culture
- Computer Science
- Divinity
- Economics
- English Literature
- Environmental Studies
- Film Studies
- Geography
- Geology
- Health and Social Care
- Hinduism
- History
- History of Art
- Information (and Communication) Technology
- Islamic Studies
- Law
- Languages (modern and classic)
- Life and Health Sciences
- Marine Science
- Mathematics/Further Mathematics
- Media Studies
- Philosophy
- Physics
- Politics
- Psychology
- Religious Studies
- Sociology
- Sport Science
- Statistics

Please note that a combination is needed of A-levels in at least 3 different accepted subjects. The combination of 2 A-levels in Mathematics and Further Mathematics will count as 1 relevant A-level., for example.

---

Not accepted subjects

- Applied general
- Art and Design
- Computing/Programming
- Critical Thinking
- Dance
- Design and Technology
- Design and Textiles
- Digital Media and Design
- Drama/Theatre Studies
- Electronics
- General Studies
- Global Perspectives and Research
- Graphic Products
- Knowledge and Enquiry
- Leisure Studies
- Music
- Music Technology
- Performing Arts
- Photography
- Physical Education/Sports Studies
- Thinking Skills
- Travel and Tourism